A GALA DINNER IN SUPPORT OF THE NELSON MANDELA CHILDREN'S FUND (CANADA)

DATE

November 9, 2006

VENUE

Hall G, Metro Toronto
Convention Centre
South Building
222 Bremner Boulevard

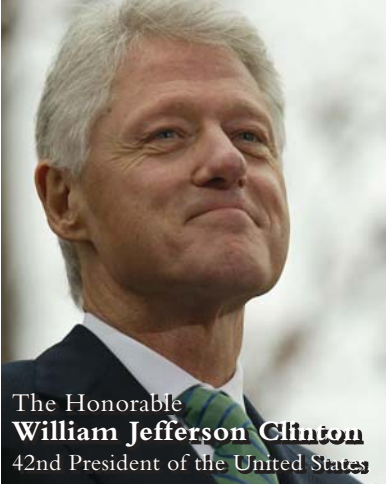

TIME

5.30 pm Reception
6.30 pm Dinner

Join Canada's key business, social and community leaders as they celebrate the life and work of Nelson Mandela and the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund (Canada) at their Gala Dinner.

Each and every year marks a milestone in the lifetime undertaking of the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund (Canada) to becoming a dependable voice for children and a platform to fuel action for youth development. What began as a miniature move to redeem homeless children fending for a living on the street, has today grown into a development leader of laudable standing.

This year's dinner will offer attendees the opportunity to hear from The Honorable William Jefferson Clinton, 42nd President of the United States, along with Marc & Craig Kielburger, founders of Free The Children.

The Honorable Bill Clinton

42nd President of the United States

William Jefferson Clinton was elected President of the United States in 1992, and again in 1996—the first Democratic President to be awarded a second term in six decades. President Clinton's core values of building community, creating opportunity, and demanding responsibility resulted in unprecedented progress for America.

After leaving the White House, President Clinton established the William J. Clinton Foundation. The mission of the Clinton Foundation is to strengthen the capacity of people in the United States and throughout the world to meet the challenges of global interdependence. The foundation is focused on four critical areas: health security, with an emphasis on HIV/AIDS; economic empowerment; citizen service; and racial, ethnic and religious reconciliation.

In addition, President Clinton serves as Co-Chair of the Families of Freedom Fund with Senator Bob Dole, which has raised $100 million in scholarship money for families of those killed on 9/11. Most recently, President Clinton accepted the role of UN Special Envoy for Tsunami Relief.

Marc & Craig Kielburger

Me To We: Corporate Social Responsibility, Leadership and Social Change

World Children's Prize winner Craig Kielburger and acclaimed leadership specialist Marc Kielburger are internationally renowned social entrepreneurs and visionaries. Authors of the best-selling book Me to We, they are the founders of Free The Children and Leaders Today. Free The Children is the world's largest network of children helping children through education, while Leaders Today is the top youth leadership training organization dedicated to empowering young people to become responsible global citizens. With three nominations for the Nobel Peace Prize and high-profile partnerships with organizations including the United Nations and Oprah's Angel Network as well as business groups, government bodies and educators, the Kielburgers specialize in connecting people with the issues that matter.

Children are the rock on which our future will be built – the leaders of our country for good or ill; which is why the rich potential in each child must be developed into skills and the knowledge that our society needs to enable it to prosper.

Who we are

On September 25th 1998, the world's largest classroom ever assembled gathered at Toronto's SkyDome for a celebration with our founder, Mr. Nelson R. Mandela. On that day, over 40,000 school children helped to launch the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund (Canada). Headquartered in Toronto Canada, we support the program activities of the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund in South Africa by providing financial assistance and international development capability.

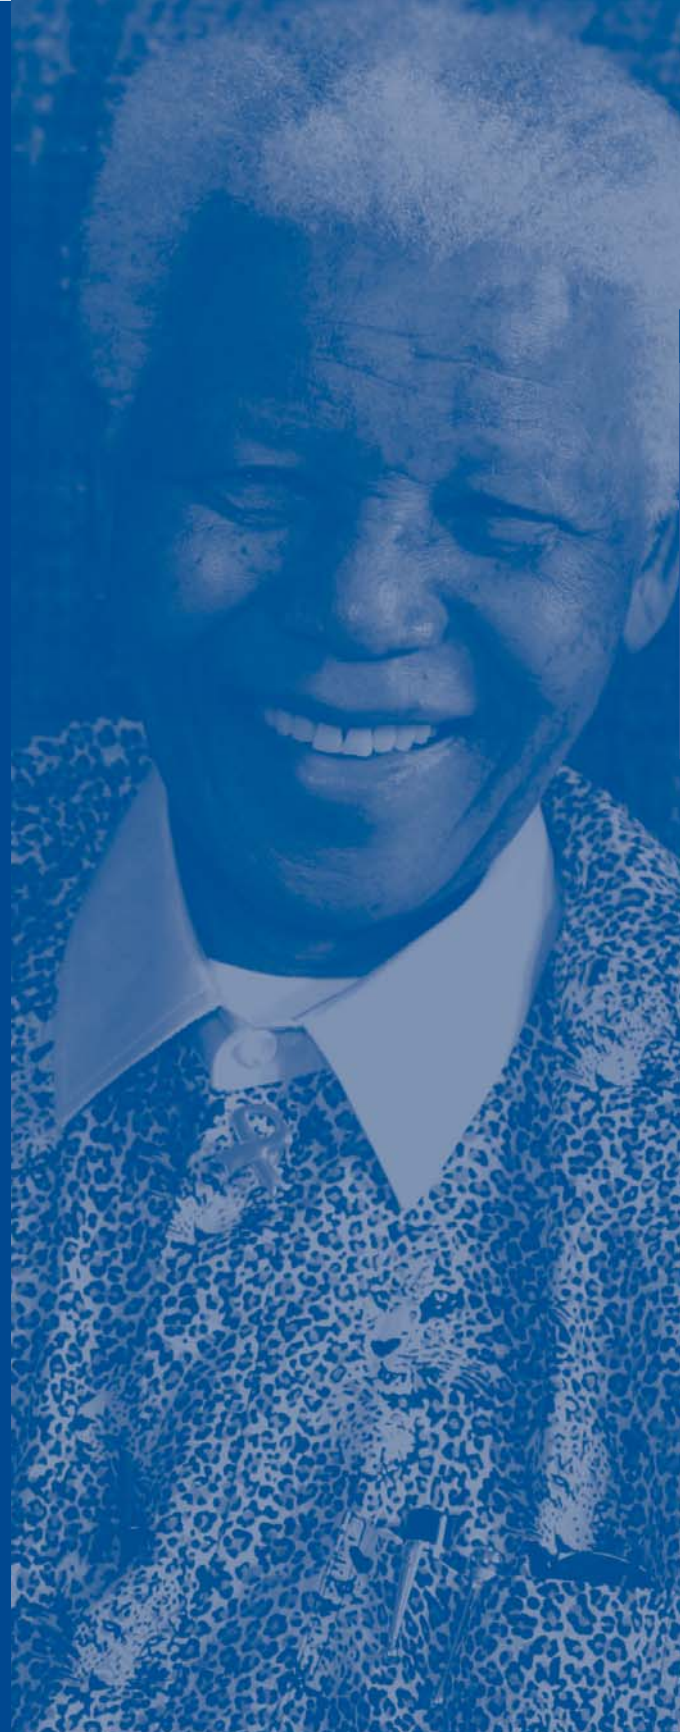

What we do

Nelson Mandela Children's Fund (Canada) works closely with the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund to nurture, motivate and care for the future of children and youth in South Africa. We ensure that all funds donated are used to empower children and youth from impoverished backgrounds and improve the quality of their lives. Our goals are to:

- Assist disadvantaged children and youth in South Africa
- Assist and provide financial aid to the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund in South Africa.
- Educate and inform the public about the social and economic challenges facing the children and youth in South Africa.

Who benefits

Beneficiaries are children and youth from birth to 22 years old. To maximize the impact of our resources, we secure matching grants from the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA), and other funding agencies, foundations, corporations and individuals committed to sustainable development in South Africa. We then monitor and evaluate programs funded by Canada to ensure that all program goals and objectives are achieved.

“There can be no keener revelation of a society's soul than the way in which it treats its children.”
- Nelson Mandela
